Graduation Class of 2024

This is the last time that we have graduation photoshoot at W31, due to the construction work of our college building at W22. We sincerely wish all our graduates the very best in their future endeavors. Please do come back to LCWC to share your own stories! Good Luck!

On 23rd March 2024, we had a large turnout of college students participate in a photoshoot. These students represented a variety of academic disciplines and were looking to either join the corporate world or pursue postgraduate degrees overseas. Many of our students have already received offers to study at prestigious universities abroad. These include the Cornell University, New York University, National University of Singapore, Polytechnic University of Milan, University of South California, McGill University, University of Copenhagen, Lund University, University of Melbourne, Sydney University, University of Hong Kong, Chinese University of Hong Kong, and University of Macau. We wish all of our graduates the very best as they take the next step in their academic and professional journeys.

LCWC Forum located at Galaxy Exhibition, and site visit

Dr. Buddy Lam, Executive Vice President of Corporate Office of Galaxy Entertainment Group and senior alumni fellow of Lui Che Woo College of the University of Macau, was invited as the guest speaker for Episode 10 of the LCWC Forum held at the Galaxy International Convention Center in Macau. This event marked the first time the forum was organized outside of the college premises. Dr. Lam captivated the audience with his personal career anecdotes, offering invaluable insights and advice on navigating the professional world. The enlightening speech left a lasting impact on the students of LCWC, inspiring and empowering them for their future career journeys.

In addition to the thought-provoking sharing, our students and staff enjoyed an exclusive site visit to the Galaxy International Convention Center, Galaxy Arena, and Andaz Macau. This firsthand experience provided them with a glimpse into the world-class facilities and further enhanced their understanding of the industry. This event presented an excellent opportunity to inspire and motivate the students, leaving them well-prepared for their future endeavors.

Academic Section

In order to create a conducive academic atmosphere at LCWC, we have established an Academic Section. LCWC Academic Section is mainly responsible for the organization and promotion of academic activities at LCWC. Moreover, Academic Section provides personal academic development to, and suggestions for, our college students.

Global Management Competition

Team "Rocket" from Lui Che Woo College secured the 7th place in the final stage of the Macao Leg of the Global Management Challenge (GMC)! More than 100 teams participated in this year's competition. After over two months of intense competitions, Team "Rocket" advanced to the final. We extend our heartfelt congratulations to all the participants who represented our college in this prestigious event. Your hard work, dedication, and remarkable performance have brought great pride to our college. Congratulations to all! Well done!

Mathematical Modeling

We are delighted to announce that four teams of LCWC students participated in the 2024 Interdisciplinary Contest in Modeling. We are proud to share that three of our teams have received the "Successful Participant" award. Congratulations to all the participants! It is worth mentioning that almost all the students are from majors other than mathematics. This achievement represented a significant milestone for the college, as it was our first endeavor in organizing and participating in a mathematical modeling contest at the college level. We commend the students for their dedication and hard work, as their accomplishments demonstrate their skills and commitment. Well done, and may this success inspire even greater excellence in the future!

LCWC FORUM 呂院大講堂

"LCWC Forum" is a special college programme consisting of a series of activities organized by the Academic Section of LCWC. By inviting different experts, professors, successful individuals and alumni into the college to interact and share with students, we hope to bring different perspectives to, and enhance the experiences of, LCWC students.

Former Deputy Editor in chief of Shanghai Daily, Prof. Zhang's Sharing

Around 30 students attended our first LCWC Forum for the new academic year on 5th Sept! We are delighted to have invited Prof. Leo ZHANG, the co-founder of 3am Consulting Company and the former deputy editor in chief of Shanghai Daily, to share his experiences in the communication industry. Particularly, more than 10 students enthusiastically participated in the Q&A sessions. Their questions included career, impact of ChatGPT and trend of the new-media.

High Table Dinner Experience

High Table Dinner is one of the major educational experiences, and a signature event, at the college. The education objectives of High Table Dinner are as follow:

- Students should feel at ease in attending formal social functions and be well versed with social and dining etiquettes, which will be beneficial to their future career development;
- Students should learn to break the ice in interacting/communicating with table guest(s) and other unfamiliar college-mates as an enhancement of their communication skill;
- Students should obtain some insights out of the speech delivered by the keynote speaker(s).

1st High Table Dinner

LCWC's first High Table Dinner was an evening of unparalleled cultural engagement, featuring a special guest speaker, Ms. Wendy Yu of MGM China, and captivating student performances. The highlight was a certificate ceremony honoring our distinguished College Ambassadors and Academic Session Leaders.

Beyond the entertainment, the event provided valuable learning opportunities. Students honed their interpersonal and leadership skills through facilitated table conversations, refining not just table manners, but the art of meaningful connection.

Site visits

Throughout each year, LCWC receives many invitations from different enterprises and organizations who are willing to host property visits for our students. These tours enable our students to understand more about various businesses and how to manage business operations. Students also have the opportunity to attend big events such as musical concerts and trade fairs.

On 18th November 2023, LCWC organized a visit to Huawei European Town in Dongguan and BGI in Shenzhen. Students explored Huawei's corporate culture and career prospects, while also learning about genetic research and advancements at BGI. The visit provided valuable insights into technology and Chinese enterprises.

SINGAPORE

To enhance students' global perspective and knowledge, LCWC organized a study tour to Singapore for its students and staff. The study tour provided them with the opportunity to engage in cultural and knowledge exploration and experiential learning, broadening their knowledge in areas such as engineering, business, and social sciences.

Our group of 22 students and staff resided at the College of Alice and Peter Tan (CAPT) in the National University of Singapore (NUS). They visited the Engineering Design and Innovation Centre and discussed with their professor topical issues related to the integration of academic knowledge with industrial practices in the real world. The group also visited the Institute for the Public Understanding of Risk and explored a range of academic topics including growth mindset and healthy ageing. During their visit to the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, LCWC members met with vice deans of the faculty and learned about the various academic programmes offered by the faculty as well as career opportunities in Singapore. Moreover, while in Singapore, our group was given a guided tour of the Nanyang Technological University by their professors. Beyond academics, this study trip included learning tours of Singapore's international resorts - the Resorts World Sentosa and Marina Bay Sands.

Responsible Citizenship

As a citizen, we believe individuals should have affection for their country and bear social responsibility. Law-abidance, integrity and honesty are necessary as well. In order to strengthen work in this area, we arrange students to attend different exhibitions, go on cultural trips, and organize “two laws” promotion in the college.

Development of Macao Judiciary Police

It is a great honor to invite the former secretary of the Macau Judiciary Police, Prof. Chau Wai Kuong, to deliver a series of lectures on the history of the Macau police, the development of Macao Judiciary Police, sharing of real cases, and relevant legal research. These lectures enhanced the understanding for police system of Macau to our college students.

Visit Police School

On 13 September, students of LCWC and CKLC paid a visit to the School of Macau Judiciary Police. As student “detectives”, they experienced collecting fingerprints and acted as investigators at a mock crime scene. This event greatly enhanced our students’ understanding of the police system in Macau.
